Bridget – I do not know if my firm or another firm will be representing Mr. Keenan and his firm in this action. I expect to receive a formal coverage determination this week. I or another attorney will then circle back to you on this issue.

Thanks

Ian: We have attempted service of Mr. Keenan in Georgia and Florida on multiple occasions. See attached. Please advise if you are able to accept service or if we will need to incur the expense in seeking another remedy or go to the court for relief. I also note that I understand under Georgia law, where Mr. Keenan practices, defendants have a duty to avoid unnecessary costs of serving the summons. Thank you.

Thanks – if you could let me know if you are authorized to accept service. We can reach an agreement on a responsive pleading deadline like we did with Hoey.
